

Happy Names day +Daniel!

Dec 17/30 2017 Prophet Daniel and the Three Holy Youths Ananias, Azarias and Misael

D man, it is your day today. I served the liturgy for you, and for me, and for 50 friends, and for the world.

This action is not so remarkable in one way, but in another, there are not enough words on earth to describe it. I visited heaven because that is what we do in the liturgy, but then we return to earth, with our sins.

I was thinking – I suppose you have met Daniel now. Maybe he looks like his icons. He was an old man in the Lions den but we always show him as young in his icons.

You are very young, and you cannot grow old. Simple people say they are sure you are okay, sometimes with an accent.

You're smart as a whip, but you understood simple people too. I'd like to think you learned kindness from your mom and me. Because of your kindness, you could talk to simple people. Of course you know that simple people may be very smart, or very educated. You were those things too, but I think part of you is simple. Part is not – after all you were 20!

I'm still collaborating with you, still doing the best I can, which ain't that good. God can make anything good. I'm sometimes simple but not simple enough to understand all the signs God is showing us about you. I don't really know how these things work, so I will say something simple. Happy names day son.
